Cruising aboard the deluxe M.S. Amalyra

October 15 to 23, 2011

Lehigh University Alumni Association
Dear Alumni and Friends:

Once upon a time, in a land “filled with the marvelous”—medieval castles, dense and mysterious woodlands, quaint villages filled with half-timbered houses and bucolic terraced vineyards—the Brothers Grimm, Johann Wolfgang von Goethe and Washington Irving were inspired to write of magical characters alternatively bewitching and rescuing real-life people in what have become epic fairy tales and folklore. The remarkable settings in the river valleys of Germany, so colorfully portrayed in these stories, are still happily intact and beckoning to be explored.

We are delighted to present the seven-night cruise of River Life™ Along the Rhine, Main and Mosel, a carefully crafted itinerary visiting four UNESCO World Heritage sites and featuring three of Europe’s seminal waterways and Germany’s celebrated wine regions during the best time of year! Cruise aboard the exclusively chartered, deluxe M.S. Amalyra, one of Europe’s newest and most state-of-the-art river vessels. Our specially arranged excursions explore the region’s rich heritage and Roman history, Bavaria’s Romantic Road culture and daily life in the heart of the famous Rheingau.

Among the many Cultural Enrichments you will enjoy is the exclusive Village Forum™, where local Einwohner (residents) will share personal insights about contemporary life and their cultural heritage along these conduits of commerce. En route, sample local Riesling wine and Bamberg’s distinctive Rauchbier (smoke beer) and learn to speak just enough German to make your interaction with the locals all the more enjoyable. Your cruise is anchored on either end with two exceptional opportunities in which you can choose to participate: a Prague Pre-Cruise Option to visit this UNESCO World Heritage site, one of Europe’s most spectacular cities, and a Luxembourg Post-Cruise Option to visit the only remaining grand duchy, a UNESCO World Heritage site often overlooked by travelers.

This exceptional travel value provides great appeal—all accommodations, all meals and all excursions are included, and you will unpack only once! I encourage you to make your reservations now, while Early Booking Savings are available.

Sincerely,

Robert W. Wolfenden
Assistant Vice President for Alumni Relations

Quaint half-timbered houses and traditional wine taverns line Rüdesheim’s narrow lanes.
The true character, traditions and daily rhythms of Germany’s fabled wine country are best found in the cobblestone squares, fairy-tale castles and lush vineyards of the quaint villages and charming towns along three of Germany’s most picturesque rivers, the Rhine, Main and Mosel. An exceptional value, this custom-designed program in the Village Life™ series immerses you for one full week in a peerless, comprehensive and intimate travel experience at just the right pace; reserve by the Early Booking date for the best value! All accommodations, meals, excursions and featured Cultural Enrichments are included and are available only in this exclusively arranged offering. And, you will unpack only once!

The state-of-the-art M.S. Amalyra has been privately chartered for this exclusive itinerary and features deluxe accommodations and superior service. It is ideal for exploring Germany’s storied rivers.

Cultural Enrichments are key educational components of River Life™ along the Rhine, Main and Mosel and offer you a travel experience like no other:

♦ Hear it from the experts! Prominent faculty will accompany you and address a variety of historical and cultural topics throughout your cruise. Exclusive excursions led by experienced, English-speaking local guides will enhance your appreciation and enjoyment of the people of the region and their deep-rooted history and traditions.

♦ Learn key phrases and pronunciation that will enable a more personal interaction with locals during “Sprechen Sie Deutsch?” the specially arranged introduction to the German language.

♦ Meet local Einwohner (residents) during the exclusive Village Forum™ as they share their candid perspectives on daily life in Germany’s foremost wine regions. Meet the mayor and official Wine Queen of Zell to discuss the importance of wine production.

♦ Experience a performance of Der Meistertrunk in Rothenburg ob der Tauber, a reenactment of the town’s rescue during the Thirty Years War.

♦ Sample the world-renowned flavors of Bamberg’s smoke beer and the Rheingau’s famous Riesling wine during specially arranged tastings.

♦ Enjoy time on your own—stroll along the cobblestone lanes of medieval walled cities, observe the rhythms of daily life while sipping local ale in a typical beer garden, or simply enjoy the spectacular passing scenery from aboard the ship.

BAMBERG

The Bavarian UNESCO World Heritage site of Bamberg, a virtual showcase of Romanesque, Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque architecture, has carefully preserved its historic, artistic and architectural heritages, having remained untouched during World War II. See the brilliant Baroque and rococo frescoes of Bamberg’s Gothic Old Town Hall, its picturesque “Little Venice” of restored half-timbered fisherman’s cottages and the 13th-century Bamberger Dom (cathedral) revered for its splendid sculptures, especially the enigmatic Bamberg Rider, the first equestrian statue in the West since Classical antiquity.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Enjoy a tasting of Bamberg’s traditional Rauchbier.

WÜRZBURG

Capital of the Franconian wine region, Würzburg is the starting point of Germany’s famous Romantic Road. Its opulent 18th-century Würzburg Residenz (Residence Palace), designated a UNESCO World Heritage site, was designed to rival the palaces in Vienna and Versailles and has been restored to its former glory following World War II. Above its grand Baroque staircase, Giovanni Tiepolo’s original ceiling fresco, The Four Continents, remains magnificently undamaged and intact.

Rothenburg ob der Tauber

Perched high above the River Tauber, the beautifully preserved town of Rothenburg is a quintessentially German town and one of the oldest along the Romantic Road. Its authentic medieval atmosphere—manifest in the 12th-century walls, quaint Altstadt and historical festivals—transports you to the Middle Ages like no other town in Germany. The 14th-century Gothic Church of St. Jakob is a historic Lutheran church with an extraordinary wood-carved altarpiece depicting the Last Supper carved by renowned Würzburg sculptor Tilman Riemenschneider. Cultural Enrichment: Attend a performance of Der Meistertrunk.

Wertheim

A one-thousand-year-old hamlet, lovely Wertheim is built around a medieval town center surrounded by traditional German half-timbered houses and narrow streets. The ruins of the Burg (castle) date to the 12th century. The local Glass Museum displays the long tradition of glass-blowing in Wertheim, which is world-famous for its production of holiday ornaments.

Milttenberg

Milttenberg is traditional Bavaria at its very finest. A Renaissance fountain is the focal point of its traditional Marktplatz; narrow, cobblestone lanes lead from the 14th-century Old Town Hall to magnificent Mildenburg Castle; and Germany’s oldest inn, Gasthaus zum Riesen, has provided uninterrupted service since the 15th century.

Heidelberg

To many on the “Grand Tour” of Europe, fashionable in the 18th and 19th centuries, Heidelberg was Germany. This city, Germany’s oldest university town, epitomized the spirit of German Romanticism. It has preserved its authentic Renaissance-Baroque character, including the nine arches of the famous Alte Brücke (Old Bridge) that still span the Neckar River. High above, the magnificent red sandstone Heidelberg Castle contains the legendary Grosses Fass (“Great Vat”), the world’s largest wine barrel, made from 130 oak trees and with a capacity of 55,000 gallons.

Rüdesheim

In the heart of Germany’s wine country lies the charming town of Rüdesheim. The quaint Drosselgasse pedestrian street leads to a tram that ascends into the hills offering sweeping vistas of the surrounding Rheingau (Rhine River Valley), the most scenic section of the Rhine designated a UNESCO World Heritage site for its stunning landscapes and architectural treasures. Nearby is the Lorelei Rock—ancient legend holds that a beautiful maiden lured sailors here with her enchanting song. Cultural Enrichment: During the Village Forum™, local residents discuss contemporary and cultural issues affecting their daily life. Cultural Enrichment: Visit a wine cellar for an exclusive wine tasting of the region’s famous Riesling.

Cochem

“The Pearl of the Mosel River,” medieval Cochem enchants visitors with its delightful riverfront promenade. Its turreted 11th-century hilltop castle, Reichsburg, has been restored to its original majesty and overlooks the steeply terraced vineyards and tiny, storybook village that characterize the Mosel Valley’s legendary wine country and scenic beauty.
M.S. AMALYRA

This deluxe river ship, one of the newest and most state-of-the-art vessels plying the waterways of Germany, sets a new standard in European cruising. It offers grand comfort and style and superior personal service provided by a friendly, professional crew.

All Staterooms are outside. Most feature French Balconies (full-length sliding glass doors with iron railings) enabling you to open your Stateroom to the outdoors. Each Stateroom features the amenities of a fine hotel including a private bathroom, individually controlled air conditioning, stylish plush bedding, Infotainment System, internet access, hair dryer, safe and bathrobes.

The ship’s dining room accommodates all guests in a single, unassigned seating and features regional cuisine prepared with fresh ingredients. Three meals are served daily—buffet breakfast, lunch and a four-course dinner—as well as early risers’ coffee and afternoon tea. Complimentary house wines from local vintners are served with dinner. The Restaurant provides guests with everchanging panoramic views of the timeless landscapes of the Rhine, Main and Mosel river valleys.

Public areas feature a tastefully appointed Main Lounge and Bar, beauty salon, spa and fitness area. Bicycles are available on board free of charge for passengers to explore small villages and towns while the ship is in port.

ZELL
Terraced vineyards and vast forests slope down to the medieval riverside village of Zell, a gem among the Mosel’s wine-producing communities. Zell is best known as the source of the famous Zeller Schwarze Katz (“Black Cat”) Riesling.

CULTURAL ENRICHMENT: Meet the mayor and Wine Queen to learn about the importance of the region’s wine industry. Then, enjoy a private tasting of the local wine.

TRIER
Germany’s oldest city, Trier was founded in 30 B.C. by Julius Caesar as the “Second Rome.” This UNESCO World Heritage site has the greatest collection of Roman monuments north of the Alps. The massive Porta Nigra (“Black Gate”), which formed part of the second-century city wall, is the best-preserved Classical city gate in the world. And, the Konstantin Basilica (A.D. 310) is the largest single-room structure left from Roman times.
Prague’s blend of Gothic, Renaissance and Baroque architecture has earned it a designation as a UNESCO World Heritage site and the “City of a Thousand Spires.”

Prague Pre-Cruise Option
Before your cruise, stay in vibrant Prague, the Czech Republic’s elegant capital city, for three nights in the ideally located deluxe INTERCONTINENTAL PRAHA. During exclusive excursions, explore the vast complex of palaces, churches and towers of Hradčany, residence of Bohemian royalty and center of political power for more than 1,000 years; tour the Staré Město (Old Town); see the Old-New Synagogue, the oldest extant synagogue in Europe; and meander through the haunting and evocative old Jewish Cemetery.

Luxembourg Post-Cruise Option
Extend your tour with two nights in the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, the world’s only remaining grand duchy, in Luxembourg City’s deluxe HOTEL LE ROYAL LUXEMBOURG. Exclusive, specially arranged excursions feature visits to Luxembourg City’s Old Quarters, a UNESCO World Heritage site; the National Museum of Military History, dedicated to the Battle of the Bulge during World War II; and Vianden Castle, former home to ancestors of the present-day Dutch and Luxembourg royal families.

Options are available at additional cost. Complete details will be included with your reservation confirmation.

The Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, though small, offers visitors numerous delights, both historical and natural.

RIVER LIFE™ ALONG THE RHINE • MAIN • MOSEL RESERVATION FORM
CONTRACT: TERMS & CONDITIONS

NOT INCLUDED: Taxes; passport fees; visas and fees for obtaining visas; personal expenses such as laundry and telephone calls; accidents/sick/crop cancellation, and baggage insurance; gratuities to ship and hotel personnel; optional sightseeing excursions; excess baggage charges on aircraft; local departure airport/taxi fees; airfare and associated local taxes, airport facility taxes and federal inspection fees not listed in the “Included Features” section; transfers and baggage handling from airport/hotel/ship on day(s) of arrival and/or departure; if you have not purchased your international air arrangements through Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, or if you are arriving earlier or later than and/or departing earlier or later than the scheduled group transfer(s); meals and alcoholic beverages not listed in the “Included Features” section; and all other services not specifically mentioned in the “Included Features” section.

AIRFARE: Airfare is subject to change and availability and is nonrefundable. Your airline ticket constitutes a contract between you and the airline (not Thomas P. Gohagan & Company), even if purchased through Thomas P. Gohagan & Company.

LUGGAGE: Luggage allowance policies are set by the airlines and may change without prior notice. Please contact your airline(s) for the most current luggage allowance policy.

HEALTH: Any physical or mental condition that may require special medical attention (for example, the need for a wheelchair) must be reported in writing when you make your reservation.

DISCOUNTED RESERVATIONS: Discounts apply only to those reservations received in the offices of Thomas P. Gohagan & Company in writing, accompanied by the required deposit, by March 18, 2011. In the event a “discounted” reservation must be cancelled, no “replacement” reservation can be substantiated at the discounted rate. A “replacement” reservation is, in effect, a new reservation and can be substantiated only at the full-fare tariff. Change and/or cancellation fees apply as outlined in this “Contract: Terms and Conditions” for the “replacement” reservation and the cancelled reservation.

CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Cancellations for all or any part of the trip will not be effective until received in writing in the offices of Thomas P. Gohagan & Company. Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply; reservation cancellations are subject to a $200 per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 121 days prior to departure; from 95 through 120 days prior to departure, $100 per person; from 45 through 94 days prior to departure, 65% of your trip cost; from 22 through 44 days prior to departure, 80% of your trip cost; cancellations 21 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of your trip cost. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees and administrative fees will be assessed.

PRE- CRUISE AND POST- CRUISE CANCELLATIONS AND REFUNDS: Should you have to cancel, the following terms will apply: reservation cancellations are subject to a $100 per person administrative fee from the time of booking through 121 days prior to departure; from 95 through 120 days prior to departure, $50 per person; from 45 through 94 days prior to departure, 65% of your trip cost; from 22 through 44 days prior to departure, 80% of your trip cost; cancellations 21 days or less prior to departure, a no-show, or early return from the trip will result in forfeiture of 100% of your trip cost. In addition, any applicable airline cancellation fees and administrative fees will be assessed.

TRIP CANCELLATION INSURANCE: Because our cancellation policies are strictly enforced, we strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available for comprehensive coverage of such expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, and damaged or lost luggage. We will send you an application after you make your reservation.

RESPONSIBILITY: Thomas P. Gohagan & Company, the sponsoring institution or association, and its and its employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, agents, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your trip including, for example, lodging facilities, airline, vessel, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operations, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act or failure to act of any such person or entity of any third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force major acts of war or civil unrest, insurrection or revolt, animals, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind, sickness, illness, the lack of availability of or access to appropriate medical attention, overbooking or downgrading of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes or other means of transportation, or for any failure of any transportation mechanism to arrive or depart on time.

If due to weather, flight schedules or other uncontrollable factors, you are required to spend an additional night(s), you will be responsible for your own hotel, transfers and meal costs. Baggage is entirely at owner’s risk. The right is reserved to decline to accept or retain any person as a participant on these trips at any time. Specific room/cabin assignments are within the sole discretion of the hotel/cruise line.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or trip features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Gohagan may cancel a trip for any reason whatsoever; if so, its sole responsibility is to refund monies paid by the participant to it. Gohagan is not required to cancel any trip for any reason including, without limitation, United States Department of State, World Health Organization or other Warnings or Advisories of any kind. All fares, as well as ship schedules, port calls, hours of arrival and departure, special programs and guest lecture series (if applicable), are subject to change or cancellation without prior notice. Gohagan shall not be required to refund any portion of the fare or make any other compensation for those circumstances. Gohagan is not responsible for penalties assessed by air carriers resulting from operational and/or itenary changes, even if Gohagan makes the flight arrangements or cancels the trip. Gohagan reserves the right to substitute vessels or hotels of a similar category for those listed in this brochure. Gohagan reserves the right to increase the tour price in the event of cost increases due to changes in airfares, currency fluctuations or fuel surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the tour participant of such increases.

ARBITRATION AGREEMENT: Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating in any way to these Terms and Conditions, to the Responsibility Clause, to the brochure, or any other information relating in any way to the trip, or to the trip itself, shall be settled solely and exclusively by binding arbitration in Chicago, Illinois, in accordance with the commercial rules of the American Arbitration Association then existing.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change prior to departure.
